Itinerary

In a Nutshell

On this trip, we will introduce you the culture of Iran and the UNESCO World Heritage Sites. We embark our journey from Tabriz and after visiting the great Tabriz Bazaar and the Mehri Temple of Maragheh we continue on to Takab. We consider visiting Takht-e Soleyman and Taq Bostan. In Susa, head out to the Chogha Zanbil Temple and move towards Shiraz. After immersing in Shiraz atmosphere and enjoy the works of Achaemenid period, we go to Yazd. There, you will explore Fire Temple of Zoroastrian and Isfahan is our next destination. In Esfahan, you will ramble through Naqsh-e Jahan Square and other Safavid works. The tour ends with a visit capital of Iran.

Day 1: Tabriz

Upon your arrival at Tabriz airport, you are welcomed by the representative of Shakiba Company. After serving breakfast and taking a short rest, you'll go to visit Azerbaijan museum. This museum is the second largest museum in Iran in terms of historical monuments. Afterward, we'll introduce you Blue (Kabud) Mosque (15 century AD). You'll see the finest tile in the world in the facade of this mosque. The next site is a Tabriz Bazaar (World Heritage Site) where is the largest one in the world and has accepted many traditional jobs. In the evening, our guide leads you through Shahgoli Promenade where you spend the enjoyable time by walking along the beautiful pool and being among the locals.

Day 2: Tabriz - Jolfa - Tabriz

Today, you have a chance to visit the St. Stephen's Church (World Heritage Site). This church was built in 10th to 12th centuries and it is architecturally beautiful and unparalleled. On the way to St. Stephen's church, there is the Aras River, which forms the border between Iran, the Republic of Azerbaijan and the Republic of Armenia. After the Russo-Persian Wars, this river was designated as the border between Iran and Russia in the 17th to 19th centuries. After sightseeing, you'll back to Tabriz and stay there.

Day 3: Tabriz - Kandovan - Maragheh

After having breakfast, we leave Tabriz to Kandovan. The houses of this village are carved in the mountains and dating back to the 5th millennium BC. After spending some hours in Kandovan, you'll head to Maragheh city. Maragheh is known as the city of domes and it has been the capital of Iran during the Ilkhanid period. Embark on an included visit to Ilkhanid Museum, where has kept the most works of the Ilkhanid and Timurid periods. Later, we'll go on to explore Mehri temple. You spend the night at Maragheh.
